SUMMARY

I'm a passionate full-stack web developer with 1 year of hands-on experience in web development. I love turning ideas into functional, high-performance web applications using Next.js, TypeScript, React.js, Node.js, Express, and MongoDB. My approach balances clean, maintainable code with modern, visually appealing UI designs powered by Tailwind CSS and shadcn UI. My enthusiasm lies in solving technical challenges, optimizing web performance, and keeping pace with the latest innovations in web development.
